BOYS

All boys in Anchor boy uniform

Leader asks first group of boys – Boys, what do you want to be when you grow up?

The first group of boys walk forward and dress up as fireman (black bin liners and fireman helmets) and go and stand at opposite end of the hall with the leader.

All boys sing:

We'll be firemen when we grow up, when we grow up, when we grow up

We'll be firemen when we grow up, when we grow up someday.

Leader to next group – Boys, what do you want to be when you grow up?

Boys walk forward and dress up as mechanics (overalls and a spanner)

Boys walk forward and stand in front of the firemen.

All boys sing:

We'll be mechanics when we grow up, when we grow up, when we grow up

We'll be mechanics when we grow up, when we grow up someday.

Leader to next group – Boys, what do you want to be when you grow up?

Boys walk forward and dress up as footballers (football kits)

Boys walk forward and stand in front of the mechanics.

All boys sing:

We'll be footballers when we grow up, when we grow up, when we grow up

We'll be footballers when we grow up, when we grow up someday.

One boy from last team is left behind (dressed as a minister) Leader asks boy – Jimmy what do you want to be when you grow up?

Boy replies – A minister

Leader asks why?

Boy replies – because he only works one day a week!

All boys sing:

We'll be ministers when we grow up, when we grow up, when we grow up

We'll be ministers when we grow up, when we grow up someday.

Jobs can be changed to suit and more added if required.
