The Little Cowboy

All cowboys I was born under a wondering star
I was born under a wondering star
We have to set our camp
A nice place we will seek We've had a long hard day
And now we're going to get some sleep
A wandering, wandering star.

Narrator All of the cowboys had a long hard day, they had ridden from many miles, rounding up cattle for branding. They were very glad that it was time to make camp.
